VISION

Equipping pastors and committed members to build strong local churches throughout Sabah and beyond that are passionate in worship. throughout Sapan and peyond that are passionate in worship, throughout Sapan and prepared for effective mission and evangelism.

THE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

The best time to equip and train workers is always now. We thank God for this timely establishment of a new training institute Where holistic training based on the idea of integration is made possible.

This is our response, as a diocese, under the leadership of our bishop,

We are here to help those who are called by the Lord, providing them not just with the training of the mind, but heart and skills, within a whole framework of our context. We do not just educate, we nurture the calling, and inspire actions – with support and a structure that involves collaboration with the rest of the diocese body. In other words, we are not a school. We are the church. Welcome to the family.

ANGLICAN TRAINING INSTITUTE WELCOMETO

The School of Ministry and Mission (SOMM) now renamed the Anglican Training Institute aims to give future pastors and priests a hands-on approach to ministry. (ATI) supported by a strong theological backbone.

When the Apostle Paul wrote to the Christians in Ephesus he reminded them that God's plan for His people was that they would 'become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ'. God's plan as to how this would happen is to give gifts to his church so that some would be evangelists, pastors and teachers. Why? 'To prepare God's people for works of service so that the body of Christ may be built.'

At the centre of a Christ honouring, maturing church is the clear biblical training of its leaders.

Leaders need many skills, however, without a firm foundation in the scriptures from which to exercise these gifts, we are but building a house of hay and stubble!

The Anglican Training Institute aims to first and foremost give each student, no matter what course they choose to take, such a clear biblical foundation.

> Rt. Revd. Peter Tasker, Diocese of Sydney.

Our entire purpose is to serve the local churches of the Anglican Diocese of Sabah and beyond, by providing training which helps students to gain relevant theological knowledge, and at the same time experience actual ministry learning in the mission field and local parishes. The Anglican Training Institute strikes a balance in both theology and practical training of our students, ensuring that they will graduate and Building strong churches requires pastors who are committed to God's calling, and amnowered by the Holy Snirit rooted in God's Word, and empowered by the Holy Spirit.

INTEGRATING TRAINING AND MISSION Initially called the School of Ministry and Mission, ATI has a clear mandate to train missionaries. So it has integrated the training of missionary as one of its aims. Presently, ATI also runs the training for the Ambassadors Programme - a one year training/serving programme for school leavers or graduates which consists of three cycles - with each cycle consisting of a six Weeks in-house training and a ten weeks hands-on serving in churches or mission fields. With this the Ambassadors will have the opportunity to nurture their faith as well as to assess God's calling in their life. Discipleship This is an integrated and joint effort with the Diocesan Mission Committee.

The ATI also provides an opportunity for vocational upgrade and ministry equipping for fulltime church workers – from youth evangelists, evangelists, pastors to administration staff.

COURSES OFFERED Our courses are designed to train ministers according to the vision of the diocese. They are also designed to fulfil part of the licensing and ordination requirements of the Anglican Diocese of Sabah. While academic excellence is our aim, these courses are not intended to produce academic theologians in the first instance. Instead we aim to produce men and women whom can integrate their theological studies with the challenges in their ministry.

It does not only give students good and sound biblical understanding, but also learn some very helpful practical theology which are relevant to church ministry. Apart from that its experienced and dedicated tutors are of great help and blessings to students. I highly recommend SOMM to anyone who has passion for the word of God and church ministry.
